

Brief on the Pilot Scheme for Elderly Recipients of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance to Reside in Residential Care Homes in Guangdong

1. Background and Objectives

- The Government has launched a Pilot Scheme for “Elderly Recipients of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance (“CSSA”) to Reside in Residential Care Homes in Guangdong” (“the Pilot Scheme”) on 1 October 2025 funded by the Community Care Fund (“CCF”). The three-year Pilot Scheme subsidises elderly CSSA recipients who choose to retire in Guangdong Province to reside in residential care homes for the elderly (“RCHEs”) (“designated RCHEs”) under the Residential Care Services Scheme in Guangdong (“GDRCS Scheme”), with a view to enhancing their quality of life.
- The Pilot Scheme is implemented by the Social Welfare Department (“SWD”), offering a total of 1 000 quotas. SWD has commissioned the New Home Association as the Approved Service Provider (“ASP”) to assist in its implementation. The services provided include processing applications, assisting in monitoring approved cases, promoting and publicising the Pilot Scheme, and delivering other related services.

2. Eligibility Criteria

- Elderly beneficiaries must be:
 1. CSSA recipients who are eligible for or currently participating in the Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme (“PCSSA Scheme”)¹;
 2. going to reside in or already residing in designated RCHEs (please refer to the list at Annex); and
 3. not receiving any other subsidy for residential care services from SWD or other organisations concurrently.

3. Application Procedures

- Starting from 1 October 2025, applicants may submit their applications to the ASP (for enquiries, please refer to paragraph 7 below) or the respective social security field unit responsible for their CSSA cases. If the applicant has been medically certified to be unfit to make a statement, the application form should be signed by his/her CSSA/PCSSA appointee, who is authorised by SWD to act on his/her behalf.

¹ In addition to passing the income and asset tests of the CSSA Scheme, applicants for the PCSSA Scheme must also:

- (a) be Hong Kong permanent residents who have lived in Hong Kong for at least seven years;
- (b) be aged 65 or above; and
- (c) have received CSSA continuously for at least one year immediately prior to the date of application (applicants with breaks in payment totaling no more than ten days within the one-year period are regarded as meeting this requirement).

- Applicants/appointees should submit the completed Pilot Scheme application form with copies of the following required documents for ASP's verification:
 - ♦ The applicant's Hong Kong Identity Card/other valid identity document(s);
 - ♦ The appointee's identity document(s), if the application is submitted by an appointee who is not an SWD social worker;
 - ♦ Documentary proof of the applicant's designated Hong Kong bank account for receiving CSSA/PCSSA payments (the account holder's name and bank account number must be clearly shown); and
 - ♦ Documentary proof of the appointee's designated Hong Kong bank account for receiving CSSA/PCSSA payments (the account holder's name and bank account number must be clearly shown), if the application is submitted by an appointee who is not an SWD social worker.

4. Approval of Application

- Upon receipt of the Pilot Scheme application form, the ASP will contact the applicant/appointee and verify the relevant documents.
- The applicant/appointee or his/her family members are required to select a suitable RCHE from the list of designated RCHEs participating in the Pilot Scheme (please refer to the Annex) and arrange for admission on his/her/their own².
- The ASP will seek written confirmation from the designated RCHE regarding whether the applicant will reside or is already residing in the designated RCHE.
- The applicant/appointee should provide a written declaration stating that the elderly beneficiary will continuously reside in the designated RCHE (i.e. for no fewer than 15 days in each calendar month) while receiving the Pilot Scheme subsidy. Failure to do so may result in ineligibility for the subsidy of HK$5,000 for that month.

5. Disbursement of Subsidy

- Under the Pilot Scheme, each elderly beneficiary will receive a monthly subsidy of HK$5,000³.
- During the three-year period of the Pilot Scheme, the amount of subsidy will remain unchanged.
- SWD will credit the Pilot Scheme subsidy to the elderly beneficiary's/appointee's designated Hong Kong bank account for receiving CSSA/PCSSA payments on a monthly basis.
- SWD will issue a notification letter to inform the elderly beneficiary/appointee of the application result and the disbursement arrangements.

² Where necessary, the ASP may assist the elderly in completing the admission procedures for the designated RCHE through tripartite communication.

³ Each elderly beneficiary is entitled to a fixed monthly subsidy of HK$5,000 under the Pilot Scheme. Any extra residential costs incurred by moving to another designated RCHE must be borne by the elderly beneficiary. SWD will not disburse the subsidy more than once within the same month.

6. Terms and Conditions for Receipt of the Pilot Scheme Subsidy

- The applicant/appointee must read the “Declaration and Undertaking by the Applicant/Appointee” in Part 5 of the Pilot Scheme application form carefully before signing it to confirm his/her agreement prior to submission. In addition, the information provided by the applicant/appointee must be true and complete. Any changes to the relevant information must be reported to the ASP/SWD as soon as possible.
- During receipt of the Pilot Scheme subsidy, the elderly beneficiary must pay the home fees on his/her own each month, reside in the designated RCHE for no fewer than 15 days in each calendar month, and not leave the Guangdong Province for more than 180 days in a year (i.e. meeting the prevailing residence requirement of the PCSSA Scheme).
- In case the elderly beneficiary is no longer eligible for the Pilot Scheme subsidy (e.g. withdrawn from the PCSSA Scheme, resided in the designated RCHE for fewer than 15 days in each calendar month), or there are any changes in circumstances during receipt of the Pilot Scheme subsidy (e.g. defaulting on the payment of home fees for the designated RCHE) which rendered the elderly beneficiary ineligible, the elderly beneficiary/appointee must report immediately to the ASP to arrange for the stoppage of the subsidy.
- In general, during the three-year implementation period of the Pilot Scheme, each elderly beneficiary may re-apply for the Pilot Scheme or switch to another designated RCHE for once in each case under the following two circumstances: (1) the elderly beneficiary directly relocates to another designated RCHE, or re-applies for the Pilot Scheme after withdrawing from it, on the condition that he/she continues to participate in the PCSSA Scheme; and (2) the elderly beneficiary re-applies for the PCSSA Scheme and the Pilot Scheme after withdrawing from both.
- The ASP/SWD will conduct checks on beneficiary cases and require the applicant/appointee to submit proof of monthly home-fee payments to verify the eligibility of elderly CSSA recipients for the Pilot Scheme subsidy. The applicant/appointee is required to retain monthly home-fee receipts and other documents issued by the designated RCHE for submission to the ASP/SWD upon request for verification. If the required information is not provided, or if an overpayment under the Pilot Scheme is identified by the ASP/SWD, the beneficiary/appointee concerned must repay the overpaid amount.
- Elderly beneficiaries/appointees must co-operate with the ASP/SWD in completing questionnaire surveys and participating in evaluation studies for the Pilot Scheme.
