Seek Help Early and Prevent Domestic Violence

Services for Male Victims

You are not alone

Not only women but also men may suffer from violence by their intimate partners, which involves physical violence, psychological abuse, and even sexual violence.

You are taking a brave step by actively seeking a solution

You are probably hesitant to seek help at this moment. However, persistent domestic violence will bring tremendous harm to the family. Enduring violent acts is never a solution to family problems but will only make the situation worse. If you face violence from your intimate partner, please don't stay silent. Seek professional help immediately. You can contact the police or social workers for assistance.

Seek help early for yourself and your partner, and take advantage of the opportunity to improve your relationships!

Support Services

Hotline Services

You can make use of the Social Welfare Department (SWD) Hotline Service at 2343 2255 to obtain information on related welfare services and receive timely advice/assistance from social workers. SWD Hotline social workers are on duty from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm on Mondays to Fridays, and from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon on Saturdays to provide counselling, support and advice, and to arrange appropriate follow-up services for those in need. Outside these duty hours (including public holidays), callers can choose to transfer their calls to the Hotline and Outreaching Service Team operated by the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals for assistance from social workers. They may also leave a message on the recording machine or seek assistance from the police.

Family and Child Protective Services Units

The Family and Child Protective Services Units (FCPSUs) of the SWD aim to protect children who have been harmed/maltreated; assist spouses/cohabitants who have been harmed by domestic violence, along with their family members, in overcoming trauma and rebuilding healthy lives; and safeguard the interests of children referred by the court due to custody/guardianship disputes. Victims of child abuse or spouse/cohabitant battering, their family members, and the abusers may directly approach or be referred by other agencies to the FCPSU in their respective district for assistance.

Integrated Family Service Centres

Operated by the SWD and subvented non-governmental organisations, Integrated Family Service Centres (IFSCs)/Integrated Services Centres (ISCs) aim to support and strengthen individuals and families through the delivery of welfare services with a child-centred, family-focused and community-based approach. At present, there is an extensive network of 67 IFSCs/ISCs located across Hong Kong that provide individuals and families in need with various services, including consultation service, service resource and information, family life education, parent-child activities, group work service, programmes, volunteer training and service, outreach service, counselling service and referral service, etc.

Victim Support Programme for Victims of Family Violence

The SWD-subvented Po Leung Kuk Tsui Lam Centre provides information, emotional support and accompaniment service for victims of domestic violence (including spouse/cohabitant abuse and child abuse) to alleviate their fear and helplessness when facing legal proceedings or sudden life changes.

If you are a victim of spouse/cohabitant battering (regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation and ethnicity, etc.), or a family member of the victim of a spouse/cohabitant battering case, the following units can provide you and your family with various services:

Legal Aid Department

Victims of domestic violence may apply to the court for an injunction order to stop the abuser's violent/harassing behaviour or initiate divorce proceedings if desired. The Legal Aid Department provides legal representation for eligible applicants by a solicitor and, if necessary, a barrister in civil or criminal proceedings. Legal aid will be granted if the applicant is able to satisfy the statutory criteria as to their financial eligibility and the merits for taking or defending the legal proceedings.

Hong Kong Police Force

All complaints and reports of domestic violence are handled and investigated by the Hong Kong Police Force. Under normal circumstances, the public can call any police station or report directly to any police officer. In emergency situations, the public may dial 999 to make a report.

Temporary Accommodation Services

Multi-purpose Crisis Intervention and Support Centre (CEASE Crisis Centre)

The CEASE Crisis Centre operated by the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals provides comprehensive support services to adult victims of sexual violence and individuals/families facing domestic violence or other crises. Services provided include a 24-hour hotline, crisis intervention/immediate outreach service for adult victims of sexual violence and abused elders, and appropriate support and short-term accommodation.

Family Crisis Support Centre

The Family Crisis Support Centre (FCSC) operated by the Caritas-Hong Kong aims to assist individuals or families in crisis or distress. Services provided include a 24-hour hotline, short-term emergency intervention with overnight accommodation, temporary retreat and other support services. Needy persons can access these services through referrals from social workers or by applying directly to FCSC.

Temporary Shelters/Urban Hostels for Single Persons

Temporary shelters/urban hostels for single persons provide short-term accommodation for those in need and street sleepers and assist them in finding alternative long-term accommodation through counselling and consultation. If temporary accommodation is required, one can apply for temporary shelters or urban hostels for single persons through referral from social workers.
