

Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme

Introduction

1. The Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme aims to provide cash assistance to eligible elderly Comprehensive Social Security Assistance recipients who choose to take up permanent residence in Guangdong or Fujian.
2. This leaflet outlines the main features of Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme. For more detailed information, please refer to the pamphlet 'Notice to Applicants for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance' (only Chinese version is available), which is available at any social security field unit.

Eligibility

3. To be eligible for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance, a person must, in addition to satisfying the means test under the Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme:
 - (a) be a Hong Kong permanent resident and have lived in Hong Kong for at least seven years;
 - (b) be aged 65 or above; and
(Note: A person aged 60 to 64 who is considered as an elderly recipient under the Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme also satisfies the age requirement of the Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme. For details, please contact the social security field unit which handles his/her CSSA case.)
 - (c) have received Comprehensive Social Security Assistance continuously for at least one year immediately before the date of application for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance (breaks in payment totaling not more than 10 days with this one-year period are allowed).

4. The applicant is required to declare the scheduled date of his/her departure from Hong Kong to take up permanent residence in Guangdong or Fujian, which must fall within three months of the date of application for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance.

5. If the applicant is a public housing tenant, he/she must also surrender his/her public housing unit or delete his/her name from tenancy in order to qualify for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance.

Amount of assistance

6. An applicant eligible for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance will be entitled to the monthly standard rate and the annual long-term supplement. No special grants or other payments (such as rent allowance, special diet allowance, travelling expenses) will be made to a Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance recipient.

7. In case of the death of a Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance recipient, a burial grant to meet the burial and related expenses can be made to the deceased recipient's relative or friend who is responsible for the burial arrangements on a reimbursement basis. The application must be made within six months of the date of death of the recipient. In cases where a Chinese resident in Guangdong or Fujian applies for the burial grant, the application will be processed by the Social Welfare Department's agent (for more information about the Social Welfare Department's agent, please read the pamphlet 'Notice to Applicants for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance' (only Chinese version is available)).

Application

8. All application procedures are processed in Hong Kong. An elderly Comprehensive Social Security Assistance recipient may apply for Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance in person at the social security field unit which handles his/her Comprehensive Social Security Assistance case. If he/she has a mobility problem, he/she can apply by phone or by post so that a home visit can be arranged.

Method of payment

9. Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance payment will be credited to the successful applicant's Hong Kong bank account monthly. He/She is required to make his/her own arrangements to collect Portable Comprehensive Social Security Assistance payments from that account (for example, he/she can make arrangements with the bank to remit the payments to him/her in Guangdong or Fujian). Any expenses thus incurred have to be borne by him/her.

Appeals

10. If an applicant disagrees with the decision of Social Welfare Department, he/she may lodge an appeal with the Social Security Appeal Board, which is comprised of non-officials appointed by the Chief Executive. An appeal must be lodged within four weeks immediately following the date of notification of the decision from the Director of Social Welfare. Enquiries about the appeal procedures can be made to any social security field unit.
