(Note 1) : The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures above do not represent the number of vacant beds at that moment. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilization of the beds concerned. The number of beds marked with an asterisk means the RSP charges voucher services according to individual home's actual monthly home fee with current voucher value as a ceiling price.

(Note 2) : These beds (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at value higher than the voucher value) are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item. If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should pay the top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

(Note 1) : The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures above do not represent the number of vacant beds at that moment. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilization of the beds concerned. The number of beds marked with an asterisk means the RSP charges voucher services according to individual home's actual monthly home fee with current voucher value as a ceiling price.

(Note 2) : These beds (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at value higher than the voucher value) are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item. (Note 1) : The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures above do not represent the number of vacant beds at that moment. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilization of the beds concerned. The number of beds marked with an asterisk means the RSP charges voucher services according to individual home's actual monthly home fee with current voucher value as a ceiling price.

(Note 2) : These beds (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at value higher than the voucher value) are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item. If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should pay the top-up payment on top of the voucher value.
