² In accordance with Section 2 Interpretation of the Social Workers Registration Ordinance (Cap. 505), any reference to social worker shall be construed to mean a “registered social worker (RSW)”. Organisations may, provided that no marginal cost will be incurred, enroll on top of the social work participants an extra 20% of non social work participants. For instance, if the total number of social work participants is 25, provided that no marginal cost will be incurred, five non social work participants (i.e. 20% of the 25 RSW participants) may be enrolled. SWTF will not provide funding support for these non social work participants. The amount of grant will be reduced according to the proportion of this group of participants in a programme.

Total(1)/Sub-total(2):	(1)	(2)
Central administrative cost (3): [not exceeding 10% of the Sub-total at (2)]		(3)
	Total(4):	(4)
		[(4)=(2)+(3); please see Note 5]

³ Please provide a balanced budget as far as possible and give an itemised breakdown of expenditure and income, including the amount of sponsorship sought from SWTF, the central administrative cost at not more than 10% of the requested sponsorship (if necessary), the amount of income to be borne by staff or agency, and other sources of income.

⁵ If approved, the maximum grant will not exceed 50% of the recognised budget plus central administrative cost, if applicable. The amount reimbursed for each item will not exceed 50% of the amount approved by SWTF or 50% of the actual amount incurred by the applicant for items previously approved by SWTF, whichever is the less. In case that the total sum of applications for Social Work Training Fund (SWTF) grants exceeds the amount earmarked for the year, the sponsorship for the approved applications will be adjusted proportionally to the budget approved by the SWTF.
