

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catagories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention catagory.

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catagories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention catagory.

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catergories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention caterygory.

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catergories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention catergory.

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catagories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention catagory.

List of Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) under Residential Care Service Voucher Scheme for the Elderly (as at 3 October 2025)

Remarks:

Note 1: The places provided by Recognised Service Providers (RSPs) for voucher holders are non-subsidised places and these places are also open for accommodating non-voucher holders. The figures below do not represent the number of vacant beds at that time. Elderly persons or their family members can approach RSPs regarding the number of vacancies/utilisation of the beds concerned.

Note 2: These beds are located inside the upgraded dormitory which are considered as value-added item (i.e. the beds open for accommodating voucher holder at a price higher than the voucher value). If a voucher holder chooses this type of beds, he/she should has top-up payment on top of the voucher value.

Note 3: RSPs with # sign provide places for accomodating voucher holders of both care and attention and nursing home catergories. The numbers in brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of nursing home category and the numbers without brackets represent the number of beds open for accommodating voucher holders of care and attention caterygory.
