

Committee on Services for Youth at Risk

Terms of Reference

1. To examine current youth issues and keep young people services under continuous review in order to address the changing needs of young people.
2. To advise the Government, through the Director of Social Welfare, on policies and measures related to young people, in particular the youth-at-risk.
3. To promote cross-sectoral co-ordination and collaboration at policy and working levels.